

III. Breaking of the Fallen vs 12

A: In response to the fallens rebellion in our last point, God brings on the captivity of verse 10. VS 13 Gives us insight into the heart of the fallen in their impotence. A Heart consumed with labor VS 14 - This imprisonment was not like that of today a story in a really bad motel, no their was heavy labor involved, he was on the chain gang. The word labor here has a verity of applications, trouble, affliction, disappointment, sorrow, worry, misery. God used this labor: the recompense of law breaking to bring down the heart. Brought down = to bend the knee. God placed these curses of life so heavy upon the fallen that they can no longer bear up under the load. An how faint

C. A hole crumbling in Loneliness vs 12B - From here is where we have met the group of people: Fallen. They fell! They folded up. Their hole on life crumbled.
Last week looked at the fainting, in desert of great need they cried out. This week God hurled a heavy blow knocking the sinner to the ground. I thought of Sat morning wrestling shows as a kid. This was a smack down! God brought down the hunter, prideful, rebellious sinner to the wall. Notice also there was none to help. They were alone. Brought down and none to help bring them to their feet. No one to turn to, no one to respond.
The only way the back now is up! They were

The Blessing of the Fallen vs 13-16

It would have all been over, this fallen man would have been deemed for he had met the man who the only person to say out to The Boss was of the Brim. VS 14A

The Blessing of the Brimney VS 14A

Once blinded by the God of this world now through the saving power of Christ the darkness is dispelled. I once was blind but now I see! It was said of John the Baptist the forerunner that the Gospel "was to" give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death" No longer is the excitement breath down my neck! No longer is the cool shadow of death cast over me! At the moment of a pitiful cry of repentance, my sins were placed on Christ Rom 8:1 ~~and~~ There is now therefore no condemnation on the one who is in Christ Jesus Rom 8:14 Blessing over the hand-The Blessing of the Brethren V514B+16

Down at the jail, an oft asked hymn to sin is

"He set me free" rather fitting song.

Once like a bird in prison clowd, then free came and listen to me... He set me free... He Break the bondage of sin and affliction

The trouble ~~was~~ their confidence and prevented me is gone. Sin hath no more dominate other men. The lawmen of sin that weighed down my heart has been oliterates. The gates of judgment that held mass in have been broken! No string of death!

Row 5 | 5th | The sight of such goodness makes a straight-minded men long to see the hard duty honored for his amazing story. When deacon doers fly open and cheeries are snapped when competing for a place in a minor cross-breed of the refuse to adhere to the glowers goodness of the land?

22